

Ready This Season as Never Before

Service here means more than bringing you the choicest selection from the world's best clothing, such as Kuppenheimer and Adler Collegian. It includes having special assortments for tall men, short men, stout men, large men—men who like their clothes to reflect their personality—young men—men of extreme taste—conservative men.

We are trained in the knowledge of materials. We advise you what will wear longest as well as what looks best on you from an outsider's viewpoint. We don't just sell you clothes—rather, we assist you in selecting what is best for the use you have in mind.

Smart Styles for every man of 17 to 70 in Kuppenheimer and Collegian Suits and Overcoats, $20 to $30

Died.

Death at 9:30 o'clock Saturday morning, January 25, 1919, claimed one of the best known Catholic women of Ste. Genevieve, when the final summons came to Mrs. Mary Gettinger, nee Valle, beloved wife of George Gettinger.

at her home in this city suddenly of heart trouble, aged 75 years, 6 months and 23 days. The deceased had been in poor health since last October. Mrs. Gettinger was born at Weingarten, Mo., July 2, 1843, and was the daughter of the late Charles Valle and Eleonora Valle, nee Maehler. She was united in marriage to George Gettinger at River aux Vases, January 21, 1862, by the late Rev. Father F. X. Weiss. To this union thirteen children were born, ten of whom survive together with her bereaved husband. The children are, Mary, Mrs. Lawrence Isert, of Salisbury, Mo., Annie, Mrs. William Reich, and Lena, Mrs. August Reich, of Festus, Mo., Elizabeth, Mrs. Charles Roth, of Ste. Genevieve, Joseph, Frank and Henry Gettinger of Ste. Genevieve, Peter Gettinger of Festus, Mo., and John and Dr. Andrew Gettinger of St. Louis, who were all present at the funeral, besides a number of grand and great grand children. She also leaves one sister, Mrs. Susan Vogt, and two brothers, Antoine Valle of Coffman, Mo., and Joseph Valle of Ste. Genevieve. The deceased was a loving wife and mother, ever mindful of the welfare of her children, and through her kind and friendly disposition won many friends. The funeral was held from the Catholic Church at 9:30 o'clock Tuesday morning and was largely attended. After a Requiem Mass the body was laid to rest in the Valle Spring Cemetery.

Dr. August Guye Meyer, aged 41 years, 3 months and 25 days, one of Ste. Genevieve's best known and respected citizens, died at his home in this city Monday morning, January 27, 1919, at 8 o'clock. He had been ill many weeks with complications. The deceased was born in Ste. Genevieve October 2, 1877, and was the son of the late Martin Meyer and Mrs. Mary Baumstark, nee Wehner. Besides his mother he is survived by his every faithful wife, Alita L. Meyer, nee Wiedmann, son John Martin, 2 sisters, Miss Clara Meyer and Martha, Mrs. Andrew Wilder, and three half-sisters, Ilma, Mrs. George Huck, of Crystal City, Anna, Mrs. August Birner, of New Orleans, La., and Mrs. Eulalia Baumstark of Ste. Genevieve, and a host of friends are also left to mourn his death, the deceased being a man of winning qualities, which made him a friend of every one with whom he came in contact. The funeral took place from the Catholic Church Wednesday morning at 11 o'clock, after which the remains were laid to rest in the Valle Spring Cemetery. He was a member of the Knights of Columbus and the members attended the funeral in a body.

Peter Kiefer died suddenly at his home near Ste. Genevieve Friday morning, January 24, 1919, at 3 o'clock, aged 60 years, 3 months and 22 days. The deceased was born in Ste. Genevieve October 2, 1858, and was the son of the late Philip Kiefer and Josephine Kiefer, nee Schaub. He was married to Laura Bader on February 1, 1886. To this union eight children were born, seven of whom survive him together with his bereaved wife, Mary, Mrs. Henry Richardson, of Venice, Ill., Joseph, who just returned from France, Emily, Raymond, Anna, Agnes and Leona. He was a devoted husband, a kind and loving father, and had many friends who will be grieved to hear of his sad demise. The funeral was held from the Catholic Church Monday afternoon at 5 o'clock and the remains were laid to rest in the Valle Spring Cemetery.

Edward B. Pullen was born in Breckenridge, County, Ky., on March 8, 1835, and died on January 14, 1919, aged 83 years, 10 months and 6 days. His death marks the passing of one of Ste. Genevieve County's oldest citizens. Aside from three years of service in the Union Army, he has resided in this vicinity since coming to Missouri with his parents at the age of five years. He was married to Mary M. Hinkle on February 8, 1857. He leaves to mourn his death a wife and six children, J. L., of Ponca; W. L., Eli and Mrs. T. N. Sikes, of Route 2, Farmington; G. F., of Flat River, and Mrs. S. T. Eads, of Bonny Terre. He joined the Missionary Baptist Church at Little Vine some 36 years ago and lived a devoted Christian life from then until his death. The funeral services were conducted by Rev. W. J. Bailey, of Cantwell, after which the remains were laid to rest in the Little Vine Cemetery.—Farmington News.

Mrs. James D. Fox, widow of the late Judge Fox of the Supreme Court of Missouri, died Monday afternoon, January 27, 1919, at the residence of J. A. Guignon, 5031 Cote Brillante Avenue, St. Louis. Mrs. Fox was born near Springfield, Mo. Since her husband's death she has made her home in St. Louis, having formerly resided at Jefferson City. She is survived by a daughter, Mrs. J. K. Robbins of New Madrid, Mo., and several grand children. Her remains were taken to Fredericktown, Mo., Wednesday and buried beside her husband.

Miss Madeline Marie Janis, of St. Louis, youngest daughter of Adolph A. and Emilie C. Janis, and sister of Paul V., Helen L., Julie E. and Lesieur Janis, died at Barnes Hospital in St. Louis Thursday, January 23, 1919, of diphtheria, aged 30 years.
